

Spring DPAC Full Membership Meeting
April 27, 2017, 9:00 am-3:00 pm
Kellogg Center, East Lansing, MI

Select Meeting Objectives:

- State at least two benefits of breastfeeding as it relates to diabetes prevention and management.
- Identify the connection between blood glucose levels and foot complications.
- Understand two impacts of the pathophysiology of diabetes on balance and hearing.
- Describe at least two impacts of diabetes management on oral health.

Agenda:

- 8:00 New Member Orientation
- 8:30 Registration and Networking
- 9:00 Welcome and Announcements: Paul Dake, MD, and Lynn Gray, DPAC Co-Chairs
- 9:15 Breastfeeding and Diabetes Prevention and Management
Marji Cyrul, RD, Breastfeeding Consultant, Michigan Department of Health and Human Services
- 9:45 How What We Eat Affects our Feet
Sharon Duso, RN, Program Director, Genesys Wound and Hyperbaric Center
Danielle Schmidt, MS, RD, Program Director, St. Mary's Saginaw Wound and Hyperbaric Center
- 10:45 Break
- 11:00 Diabetic Ear Disease and the Effects on Hearing and Balance
Kathryn Dowd, AuD., Executive Director, The Audiology Project, Inc.
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 Is Your Mouth Really Part of Your Body?? Making the Diabetes and Oral Health Connection -
Susan Deming, RDH, RDA, BS, Early Childhood Oral Health Coordinator
Michigan Department of Health and Human Services
- 2:00 Break
- 2:10 Focused dialog with the experts
- 3:00 Evaluation and Adjourn