

WHAT'S YOUR STORY?

STORIES CONNECT, INSPIRE, AND SUPPORT CHANGE.

Join us online for the DPAC Forum on December 3 from 9am - Noon.

This virtual event will provide a morning to Celebrate & Learn with Diabetes Advocates.

Sally Joy Award Presentation

*This award recognizes an individual for their advocacy and passion to improve the lives of people living with diabetes. There's still time to nominate someone at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/OCTJWTF>.
Nomination deadline is October 2, 2020.*

Caravan to Canada – Jillian Rippolone

What is a Caravan to Canada, who goes, why is it needed? This personal journey will bring understanding of the barriers faced by many to get the medicine they need.

Transition, Transition, Transition - Life moves fast in a college town!

COLLEGE Life is always in transition, but what about the transition from home to DIABETES college or college to career? Taking responsibility for your health, can be a NETWORK big job; There are resources to help.

Voices from the field: Diabetes and Cardiovascular Health

Dr. Michael Valitutto will share screening protocols and recommendations for cardiovascular health in people living with diabetes. People with type 2 diabetes are twice as likely to die from heart disease and stroke.

Voices from the field: Diabetes and Mental Health

Ms. Leela Kausch will share her journey to become a mental health specialist for those living with diabetes. She will look at mental health aspects of diabetes and what she sees in her daily practice. There will be discussion on provider burnout and take-home resources will be distributed.

Pre-Release and Call to Action: MI Diabetes Improvement Plan

This will be the first chance to see the focus of MDHHS programs and partnership opportunities.

This conference has been approved for Nursing and Registered Dietician CE credit

Click Here
TO REGISTER

There is no fee to attend, but you must register to reserve your spot!

Diabetes Partners in Action Coalition